Council District 9 Special Election ♦ www.nyccfb.info/voterguide

Good evening. I'm Marvin Holland. I'm a husband, a father, a veteran and long-time community activist. I'm also a proud Harlem resident.

For the past 25 years, I've been a Transit Worker. Over the years I've held many positions within my union before becoming the Political and Legislative Director, representing over 42,000 members. I work with elected officials and community groups to advance legislation in Albany and City Hall for our working families. What does this mean? For example, last year I passed two bills – the Cleaner Assault bill, protecting our workers, and the Veteran's Buy Back Bill, which allows vets to buy back pension time. Now I'm ready to put my experience to work for the people of Harlem. My focus is addressing the issues the people of Harlem are concerned about, including:

- Affordable Housing
- Education
- Safety and Quality of Life
- Jobs
- Homelessness
- Incoming Developers & Gentrification
- Services for our Youth, Families and Seniors
- Investment in NYCHA

I've built my career bringing people together to achieve results, and I want to do the same for the residents of Harlem. One more thing I want you to know about me: nobody will ever outwork me. And I plan to earn your vote the old fashion way, with hard work and your help. I hope you'll vote for me, Marvin Holland on Valentine's Day, Tuesday, February 14, 2017.
