Q: Please provide a campaign statement (we ask that you please include the neighborhoods and communities that make up the district you are running for. Your statement is limited to 1,250 characters (approximately 200 words).

A: For the last 15 years, I have been honored to work alongside Nettie Mayersohn as her Chief of Staff. Now I am running to replace her in the New York State Assembly. I want to continue fighting for the people for whom she has fought for all of these years, while never shying away from taking on new battles. I believe that the community where I grew up and where I am now raising my family should remain a neighborhood where families want to live and grow. The 27th Assembly District is a great and diverse district. It stretches from College Point, to Forest Hills, Kew Gardens Hills, Electchester, Pomonok, Briarwood, and down through Kew Gardens and Richmond Hill. I look forward to the opportunity to be the voice in Albany for all of these communities.
